Opportunities Unlimited!

Opportunities for intellectual, cultural, spiritual and social advancement are unlimited for the 1947 students at Central Catholic.

The administration and faculty, imbued with the principles of a Christian education, have an instinctive respect for these ideas, having a firm grasp of the tradition which produced them and a gift for making their heritage relevant to today's teenagers.

Opportunities for intellectual development are presented daily in the classroom and laboratories. The superior rating of the North Central Association's evaluating team of educators acknowledges the quality of educational achievement exacted and attained.

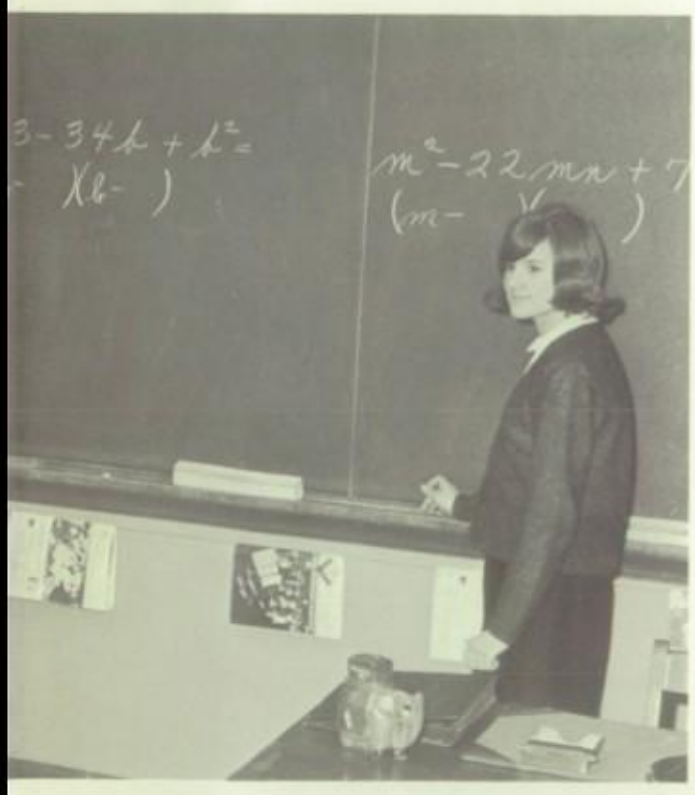
Opportunity Leads To Achievement

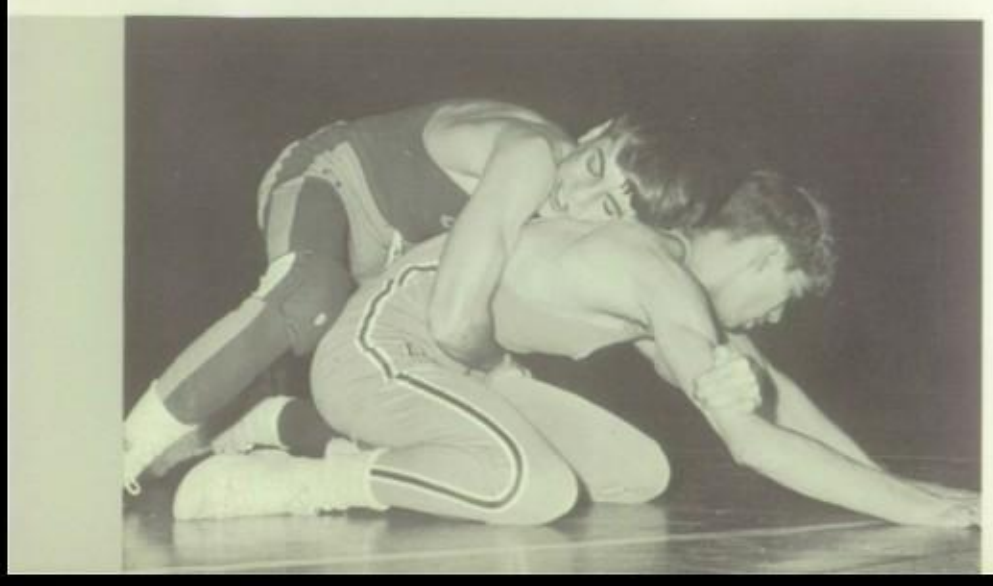
The diversity of activities fosters spiritual, mental and physical growth. Through the religious organizations, a student finds satisfaction in helping others remembering their dignity as People of God.

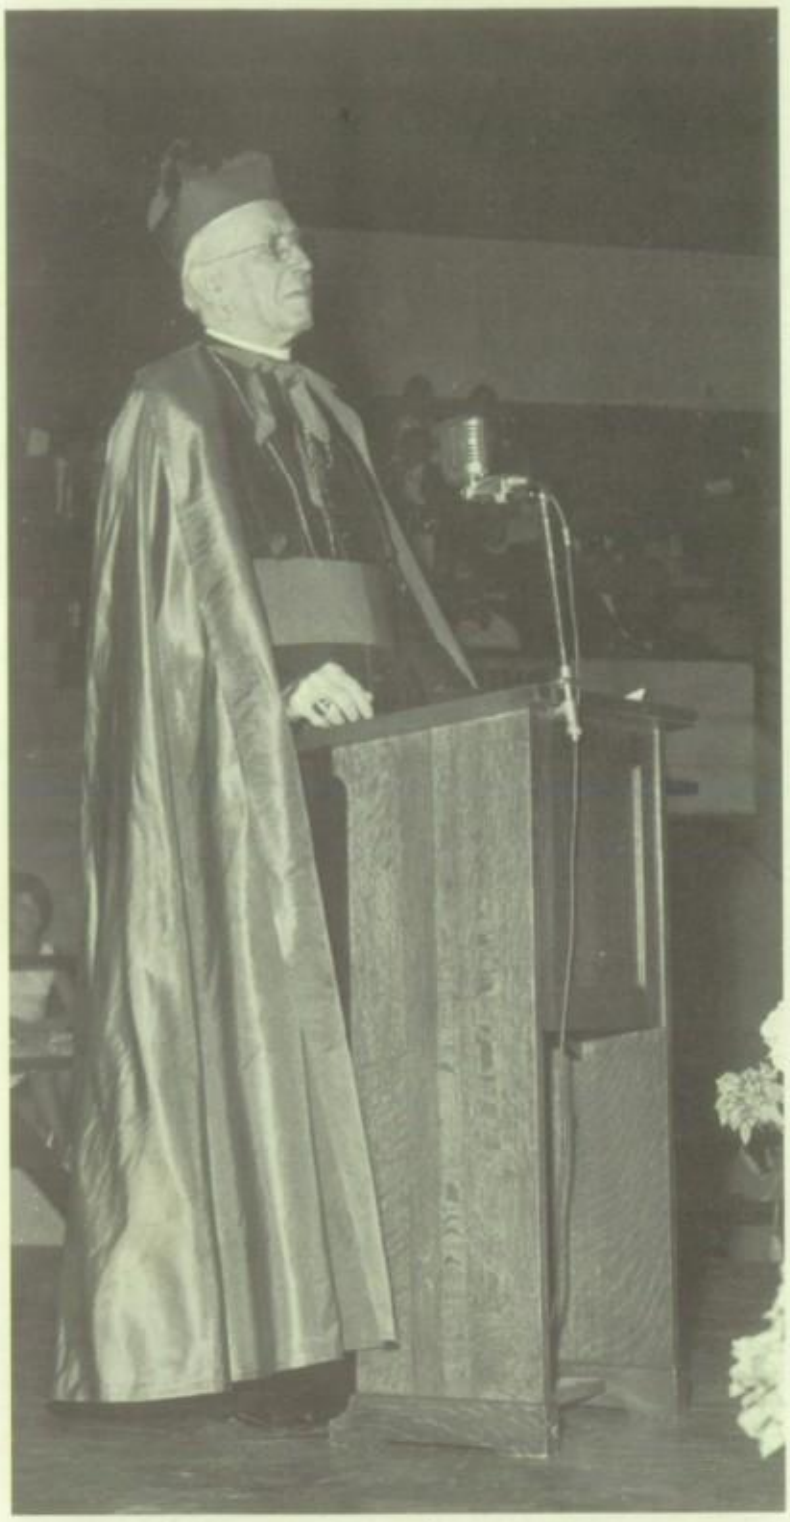
The socio-cultural clubs complement classroom teaching, implementing theory with practice.



Athletic activities elicit from each participant an appreciation of group effort. The prized title, in basketball, "City Champs," underscores the fact that individual performance plus unified group effort yields victory.

When a student utilizes the existing opportunities, he matures into a well-rounded Christian eager to face future challenges.





An annual guest at Central's commencement ceremony, Bishop Rehring addresses the future alumni.

Service To God Through Service To His Flock

"Your happiness is essentially bound up with the glory you give your Maker." These words taken from Bishop George J. Rehring's 1966 Easter Sermon describe his purpose in life: service to God through service to his flock.

Bishop George J. Rehring resigned March 1 in accordance with a decree adopted by the Vatican Council II, that every bishop is earnestly requested to relinquish his office when he completes the 75th year of his life.

Succeeding Bishop Rehring, 76, who has devoted 17 years of service to the Toledo diocese, is Bishop John A. Donovan, 55, who was installed April 18.

The success of a servant of mankind as humble as Bishop Rehring will only be repaid in eternity. In dedicating the 1967 Centripetal we offer our sincere gratitude for the priestly example and zeal he has given the diocese. Our prayers for continued health and happiness.

Bishop Rehring and Msgr. Harrington enthusiastically view and comment on the prospects of the newly-christened John L. Harrington Gym.

Bishop George Rehring presents a diploma adding words of congratulations.

Seniors Reveal Scholastic Initiative

Minute differences in the cumulative scholastic averages necessitated a ballot to select the valedictorian and salutatorian for the Class of 1967.

Valedictorian

A member of St. Patrick of Heatherdowns parish, Kathleen Schmakel has maintained a 94.904 per cent scholastic average. She serves as treasurer of the National Honor Society, as secretary of the Toledo Area Junior Council of World Affairs and spends many hours working as associate editor of the Centripetal.

Kathy's other extra-curricular activities have included Student Council 1, 2, 3, 4; JCWA 3, 4; National Honor Society 2, 3, 4; Tennis 2, 3, 4; School Play 3; Theatrical Arts Forum 3; Monogram Club 1, 2, 3; and YCS 1, 2, 3, 4.

A major achievement was first place award in the Toledo Area Elks' Scholarship Contest. Planning to major in elementary education, Kathy will enter Miami University this fall.

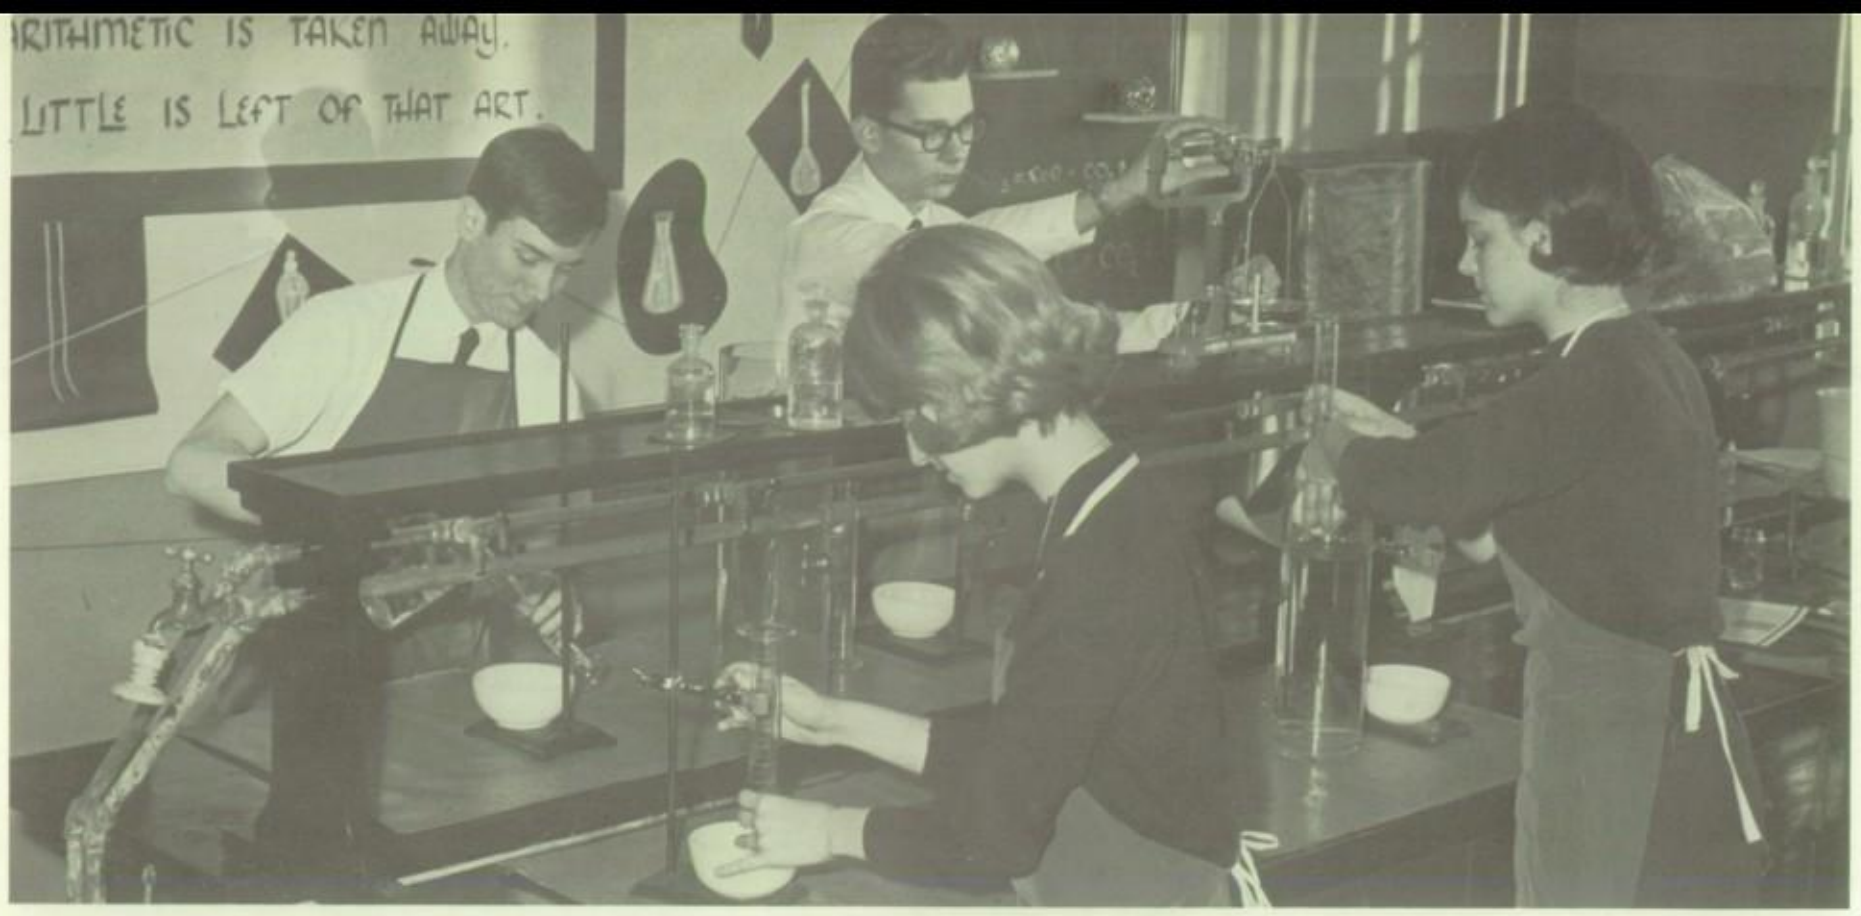
Salutatorian

Achieving a 94.885 per cent average, Martin Carr was named Salutatorian. During his four years at Central, Martin has been active in Football 1, 2; YCS 2; National Honor Society 2, 3, 4; Monogram Club 1, 2, 3; and serves as president of the Chemistry Club.

Martin's scholastic achievements include a Superior rating at the University of Toledo Science Fair and letter of Commendation from the National Merit Scholarship Program. He has won prizes in three Toledo area math tests and placed fourth in city competition.

A member of St. Adalbert's parish, Martin will enter General Motors Institute where he plans to major in mechanical engineering.

Displaying the spark, spirit and stability in Central's halls, Ellen Halker, treasurer; Tom Smith, secretary; Eve Kibbey, vice-president; and Chuck Crowley, president, leave after the adjournment of a Senior Class council meeting.



Chemistry students, Christopher Binkert, Rose Bettinger, Edward Bocik, and Michelle Bresnahan, conduct an experiment to obtain a molar volume of hydrogen gas by using magnesium ribbon. Under the direction of Sr. M. Peter Chanel OSF pupils meet twice a week in the laboratory to investigate the many mysteries of the scientific world.

Holy Toledo! Batman Joins Seniors

Anxiously awaiting the Central-St. Francis game, spirited seniors stop to display the finished product of two weeks of heart-filled effort -- their float, "The Sweet Smell of Victory."

ACTIVITIES

Student Council Co-ordinates School Activities

Under the guidance of Sr. Mary de Paul SND and Mr. Tim Dever, advisors, the Student Council makes student government an important function of school life by organizing activities.

Composed of Council officers, class officers, senators and commissioners, S.C. promotes such annual Campaigns as Catholic Chronicle Drive, United Appeal, and Car-o-sell with P.A. announcements and decorative bulletin boards.

The General Assembly meets monthly to discuss future plans and activities, while S.C. Study meets daily at eighth period to take care of routine business.

Student Council officers: Tim Galvin, president; Kathy Curto, secretary; Ron Nirshl, vice-president; and Carol Wernimont, treasurer, preside over meetings and initiate activities.

E Halker and K. Bauer rearrange the bulletin board for the Catholic Chronicle drive.

Commissioner of Elections, Linda Valigosky, gives her report at the regular General Assembly meeting.

Encouraging school spirit for the games are Mary Dutkowski and publicity commissioner Roseann Massia.

Nominated by her fellow classmates Eve Kibbey reigns as Student Council Queen. Eve represented Central at the Toledo Area Student Council Dance held at Bay View's Naval Armory on November 12. Her court included four other senior beauties: Kathy Curto, Ellen Halker, Peg O'Leary, and Janet Soviar.

Mary Jane Mazuchowski and Kathryn Bauer prepare a poster to promote school spirit in sports.

Timothy Galvin, president, opens the floor to discussion during a general student council meeting.

Amid cheers of the excited crowd, Patricia Lennex, 1965-66 Homecoming Queen, places the crown on Ellen's head, as manager, Tom Schick, proudly looks on.

Irish Beauty Ellen Halker Dons Title Of Queen

A crowded Waite Stadium witnessed an exciting, emotion-filled Homecoming on October 7.

Centralites displayed overwhelming approval with the selection of Ellen Halker as 1967 Homecoming Queen. This lovely blonde beauty was accompanied by her court: Eve Kibbey, Joanne Lindsay, Janet Soviar and Jean Szychowski.

After choosing responsible managers, candidates began a week of campaigning. First came glittery, colorful, poster parties held nightly. Dedicated friends came, scissors in hand, hoping that through their efforts, their candidates would win the crown.

Then came the annual Homecoming Assembly. Tony Pinciotti trilled out his own rendition of a popular tune, hoping to "swoon" the audience into voting for his candidate. Jim Sido utilized poetry to describe his choice. Doubling as Batman, Tom Schick got pint-sized help from a twosome who urged everyone: "Vote 4 Aunt Ellen." All tried to convince an interested audience of their candidate's qualifications.

Then — the game. As emotions rose, players fought hard to gain the final score for Central's first mid-afternoon Homecoming, Central 6 - Woodward 6. Contented Centralites left the bleachers, filled with pleasant memories.

The Homecoming Court and managers anxiously await the announcement of the new queen.

Candidates and escorts: Janet Soviar, Tony Pinciotti, Eve Kibbey, Charles Crowley, Ellen Halker, Thomas Schick, Joanne Lindsay, John Liedel, Mary Jean Szychowski, James Sido, and Patricia Lennex, last year's queen accompanied by Timothy Galvin, student council president.

Avid thespians portray the Sycamore household and their peculiar way of living.

'You Can't Take It With You'

Tony and Alice propose a toast to a happy future together.

A rebellious family who prefers the simple zany life to that of wealth and social position was staged November 11, 12, 13, under the direction of Mr. Robert Stucker.

Heading the cast besides the Sycamore family was Joseph Droulliard as Grandpa Vanderhof. Penny, as avid playwright is portrayed by Kathleen Wright and her husband, Paul, by Martin LaPorte. Essie and Ed Carmichael, Kathryn Bauer and David Kelly, and Mr. DePinna, Michael Okuley, bring a package one day and stay. Always helping are servants, Sandra Goodrich and Charles Cousins. Alice, Fran Gerken, portraying the only realistic role, is engaged to Tony, Peter Wernert, a handsome vice-president of Kirby and Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirby, John Scarlato and Marcia McHugh, with Gay, Sylvia Pantoja, an actress of sorts; Mr. Kolenhof, Joe Beckler, the Russian ballet teacher; the ex-Russian grand duchess Olga, Lori Lewandowski; and a frustrated tax collector, Steve Oster; Dennis Strong, Daniel Bradley, James Kolasinski, Marcus Page and Richard Priest complete the cast.

Essie serves her latest candy to her grandfather while Mrs. Sycamore shows him the progress she has made with her new novel.

Above: Olga and Mr. Kolenkov watch Ed Carmichael working at the printing press. Below: Mr. Henderson and Martin Vanderhof review the income tax situation.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirby and Mr. Vanderhof are shocked at the rude, boisterous attitude of actress Gay Wellington.

Music Makers Tune Up Daily

An outstanding section of Central's Music Department, the orchestra, is under the direction of Mr. Richard Collins. Members are entitled to one-half credit per year and graduates receive gold or silver monograms, depending on their participation and effort in the activities of the group.

The orchestra meets daily in the Music Building for classes of instruction and rehearsals. Members sacrifice many hours each week practicing and taking private lessons. Evidence of their dedication is heard throughout the year as the orchestra performs at assemblies, provides background music for both the Class Play and the Operetta and climaxes the year with the Spring Concert held on the front campus.

Concert Band Receives Superior Rating; Delights Audiences At Half Time

The band is one of Central's most outstanding organizations. At the Ohio Music Education Association Contest this year, "A" band received a #1 rating — the only band in Toledo to be awarded this honor. Each spring the concert band goes on tour, performing at various parishes throughout the city, and giving an annual lawn concert at Central.

The marching band, 111 strong, is the combination of the concert "A" band and "B" band. Entertaining half-time audiences at all football games, the marching band performed tunes from "The Sound of Music," "Oliver," and numerous hit television programs.

Central's marching band has proven itself one of the finest in the city. The band, dressed in sparkling new uniforms, played for the grand premier of "El Greco" and at the arrival of Senator Ted Kennedy at Toledo Express Airport.

The band class, which meets daily at eighth period is under the direction of Mr. Gerald DePrisco, assisted by Mr. Robert Gable. Mr. Charles Kolasinski conducts the Freshman band.

Mr. Gerald DePrisco, in his eleventh year as chairman of the Music Dept., has increased the number of music students to one-fourth of the school enrollment.

Precise, Earnest Central Songsters

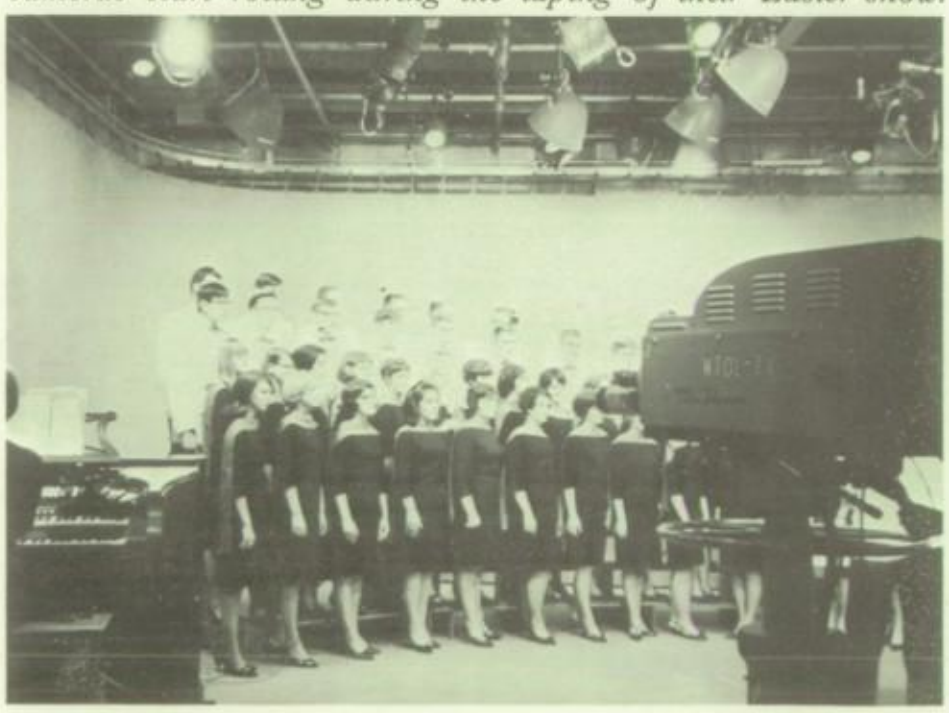
The Senior Glee Club is a precisioned, earnest company of 80 capable songsters ready to attempt any tune, from Bach to Bernstein.

Central's Glee Club is a public relations organization and does more to promote the name of the school than any other club. During this year of great accomplishments, the choristers cut a long-playing album of Christmas melodies, appeared on WTOL-TV for an Easter concert and with the rest of the Music Department attracted 4,000 people to the Sports Arena for a Yuletide musical. Other highlights of the year were the Football Banquet, annual Christmas Tour, Kiwanis Luncheon. Climaxing a successful season, the Glee Club presented the musical, "Brigadoon."

Mr. Gerald DePrisco has commented, "When something ceases to grow, to improve, it dies." With the help of Mrs. Carolyn Seeman, he has instilled into the group the strength, the spirit of pride and the self-sacrifice which are its dominant traits.

Song is the soul of a school and the Glee Club intends to keep that soul alive.

Nervously, the glee club waits for final instructions before the cameras start rolling during the taping of their Easter show.



"The Sounds of Christmas." Central's Glee Club, under direction of Mr. DePrisco presents its first Christmas concert at the Sports Arena.

Voices re-echoed in WTOL-TV studios as the Glee Club taped their first Easter Special featuring religious and contemporary Easter music.

Legendary 'Brigadoon' Brought To Life

Meg Brockie is so charmed by her male customers that she refuses to charge them for milk.

Bright plaid kilts, Scottish brogues and the haunting strains of bagpipes marked the sights and sounds of the annual musical, "Brigadoon." Again this year, the State Theatre housed the musical for the April 21, 22, 28, 29 and 30 performances.

To give more Glee Club members experience and to combine varied talents for difficult roles, certain characters were doublecast by Mrs. Evelyn Weiher and Mr. Gerald DePrisco, directors.

"Brigadoon" starred James Stein as the gay bachelor Tommy Albright and Diane Woytowich and Loretta Lewandowski doublecast as the candid Fiona McLaren.

Supporting characters were Christopher Binkert, who portrayed the good-natured Jeff Douglas; Frances Gerken and David Kelly as Jean, Fiona's sister, and Charlie Dalrymple, the excited young couple about to be married.

Sylvia Pantoja and Kathleen Bond were doublecast as the brash, impulsive Meg Brockie. Dancing Craig Barrow portrayed Harry Beaton, Jean's rejected suitor, and Charles Crowley played Mr. Lundie, the wise old schoolmaster of Brigadoon.

Mr. Lundie relates the legend of Brigadoon to Tommy and Jeff.

"Come ye from the hills, Come ye from the mills. Come ye in the glen -- Come ye bairn, Come ye men . . ." The Townspeople of Brigadoon invite people from near and far to the fair at MacConnahy Square.

Fiona explains to Meg the reason why she prefers to remain single.

Junior Prom Yuletide Fantasy Add Gaiety To Social Season

Prom

Amid an aquatic atmosphere, 1967 prom-goers danced to the music of the Jim Elliot orchestra. The Naval Armory, on May 12, was transformed into a "Paradise in the Deep." Junior decorators depicted their theme by using treasure chests, mermaids, and deep sea fish. The prom, sponsored by the Junior Class, is held annually to honor the graduating seniors. Just one year ago, the honor of being Prom Queen was bestowed upon Miss Sandy Bush.

Varsity Drag

The Knights of Columbus Hall was the setting for Central's third annual Varsity Drag on December 27, 1966. With the assistance of the orchestra of Jim Elliot, a "Yuletide Fantasy" was created to pay tribute to all varsity sports. Central's own Six Pack performed to add that little difference.

Queen Sandy Bush and Tim Renard dance to the melody of Jim Elliot's orchestra.

A "Paradise in the Deep" surrounded prom-goers as treasure chests, mermaids, and seafish decorated the Naval Armory. The dance floor indicates this junior project was a success.

Couples gather to watch Warren Grissom and Rita Butler, his date from Springfield, dance to the music of Central's own Six Pack at the Varsity Drag.

Busily counting papers for distribution are page two editors: Michaeline Zawodni, Christine Recker, Sandra Goodrich, Kenneth Freeland, Sharon Manders, editor; Mary Anne Polcyn, editor; Edward Bocik, Sandra Ross, and Carol Krajewski.

As an exchange program of high school publications, the news staff prepares the Centric for release to schools around the nation. News editors and reporters are Anna Macke, editor; Donna Rippel, Denise Janowiecki, editor; Carol Kaczala, Sandra Haladyna, Judith Kwiatkowski, editor; Leonard Boyak, and Margaret Poczekaj.

Sue Ignasiak, Jim Hermann check over the layouts while Chris Binkert and Tom Sayers set up the headline count.

Happiness Is Meeting The Deadline

As they glance at an issue of The Centric, co-editors, Elizabeth Sexton and Robert Latorre, discuss the problems which the issue encountered before publication.

"No news is good news" EXCEPT for a Centric reporter! This statement finds staunch support from two classes of journalism students who edit alternate issues of the school paper.

As Centralites eagerly anticipate the next issue of the biweekly Centric, 46 staff members plan layouts and write copy, always searching for a fresh approach to school news.

This year's staff has tried to maintain the high standards set by preceding staffs. Volume 46 won the Publication of Distinction award from the CSPA; first class rating from NSPA; superior from the Northwestern Ohio District Journalism Association, and All-Ohio award in the St. Bonaventure Press Competition.

Assisted by Elizabeth Sexton and Bob Latorre, Co-editors, and Sr. Thomas More OSU, advisor, these neophyte reporters gave old news a novel treatment and introduced several new features. "Shamrock Shorties," news briefs; "Nobert," cartoon; and "The Looking Glass of Fine Arts," guide to national and local cultural events, gave new spirit to Volume 47.

Centripetal Records Events of 1967

Counting returns from the Centripetal patron drive are seniors Kathryn Hiller and Pamela Zientowski, business managers.

Acquiring the satisfaction of producing their own yearbook, 20 members of the 1966-67 Centripetal staff hope to exceed last year's first class rating (949 points out of possible 1000) in the Columbia Scholastic Press Association's annual yearbook critique. These 17 seniors and 3 juniors devoted study periods, after school hours, suffered headaches and unexpected disappointments to relive happy memories for all Centralites.

Indescribable hours of soliciting ads, collecting patrons, drawing layouts, taking pictures, developing headlines, cropping photos, writing cutlines, typing and proofreading copy will remain among the staff's unforgetable yesterdays.

Their spirited enthusiasm, sentimental recollections, and memorable experiences are the result of the constant, unselfish guidance of Sr. Thomas More OSU, who sacrificed invaluable time and effort for the Centripetal and its staff.

Through the persistent push of co-editors, Jackie Wilczynski and Sue Varwig, and assistant editors, Kathy Schmakel and Linda Bugaj, the staff offers their interpretation and recording of 1967.

Vikki Grachek and Sandi Klosowski spent many hours planning the activity section along with helping Norb Logsdon with sports. Vikki's work includes the division pages while Sandi planned most of the page layouts.

Linda Bugaj, associate editor, types the list of names for the senior directory.

Underclass pictures are counted, recorded and paneled by Lynne Marshall, Rita Gentner, Elaine Osovich, Marcia Hejna, Mary Neuhausel and Bonnie Bork.

Arranging layouts, selecting candid shots and identifying senior pictures are Linda Roemmele, Deborah Pelz, Susan Gardner, Marietta Meier and Susan Gradel.

Further knowledge of ancient and modern Latin is promoted by the Latin Club. Participating this year in the activities are P. Zaenger, K. Brazzill and L. Kowalski. Standing: S. Nowak, K. Wies, J. Szychowski, S. Oberdier, P. Jennings and J. Bagrowski.

Language Clubs Promote Understanding

Languages provide a basis for communication, and the language clubs enable students to further their knowledge of the countries, culture, dress and beliefs of other countries. They play an important role in rounding out the student's education and preparing for background material in college.

This year the French Club has been exchanging ideas and films with the French Club of St. Francis. Two boys, who spent last summer in France, showed films of their trip.

One of the main events of the Spanish Club was a dinner, prepared and served in the school cafeteria. On the menu were tortillas, tamales and chile.

The German Club planned a visit to Frankenmuth, Michigan, a replica of a small German village. German students also represented Central at the International Festival, held at the Sports Arena.

The Latin Club ended the year with a Saturnalia Festival in which the whole club participated.

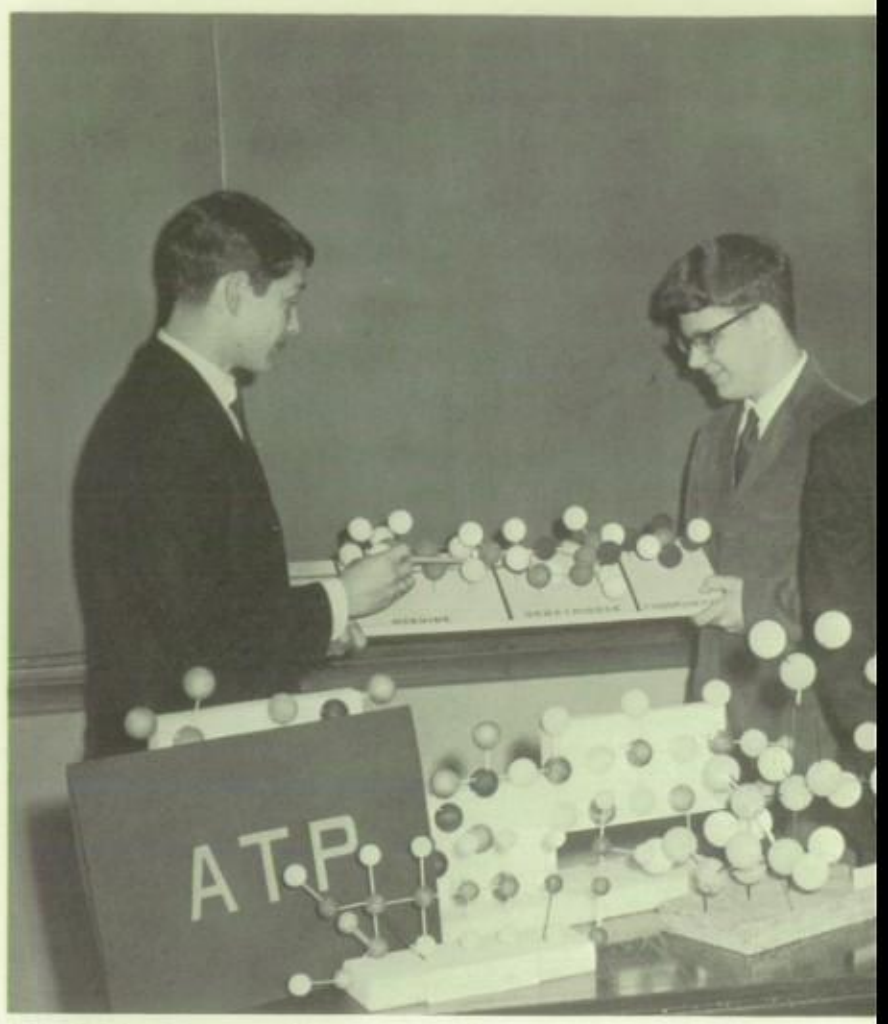
Planning the future activities of the Spanish Club are officers Terri Pudlicki, treasurer; Chris Kleuber, vice-president; Margie Patro, secretary; and Ted Chmielewski, president.

Disregarding their fear of indigestion and heartburn, hungry Spanish Club members select traditional Spanish delicacies including hot tamales, tacos and chile. Together with the generosity of Spanish parents and the cooperation of the cafeteria staff, the first Spanish Club banquet was a huge success.

French Club members show their interest and evidence of their creative ability in the national costumes on their models. Members are Kathy Spitulski, Kitty Judy, Becky Kleuber, Anna Pethe and Kathy Ott.

The true customs of the German culture are reenacted by these students, as they perform traditional German dances.

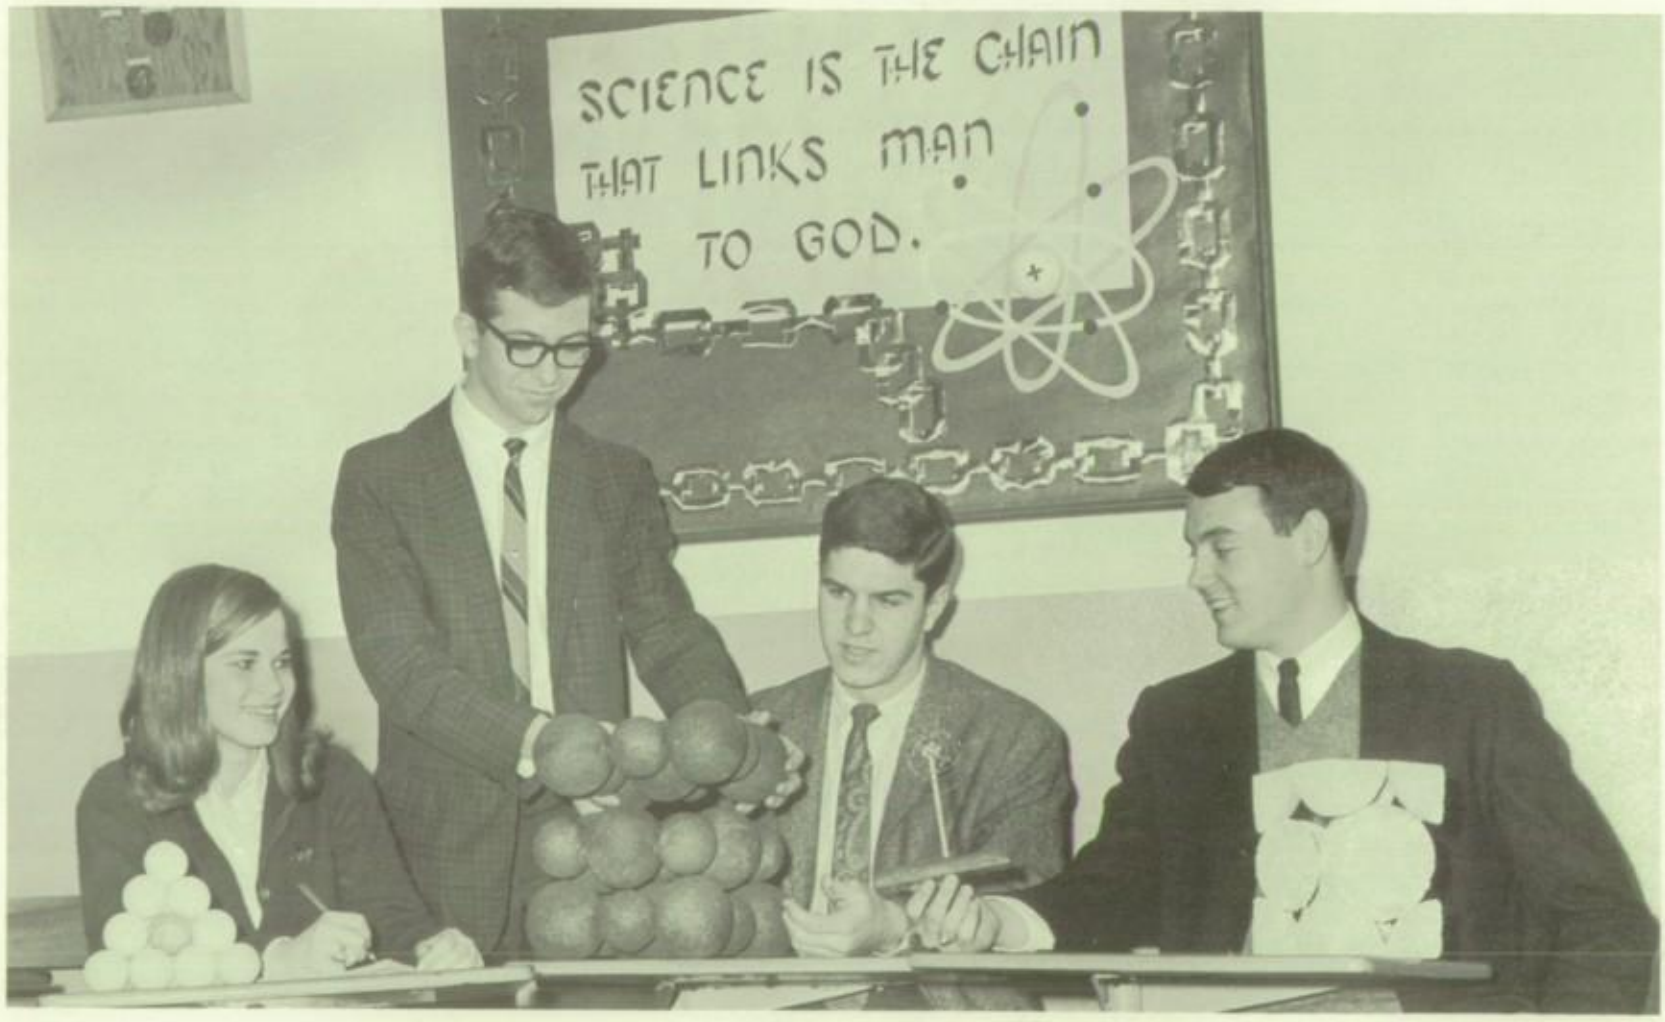
Eugene Nowak, Jim Olsen, Dotti Godlewski and Judy Kaminski belong to the first chapter of the Future Scientists of America. Biologists study and observe different models of the DNA molecule.

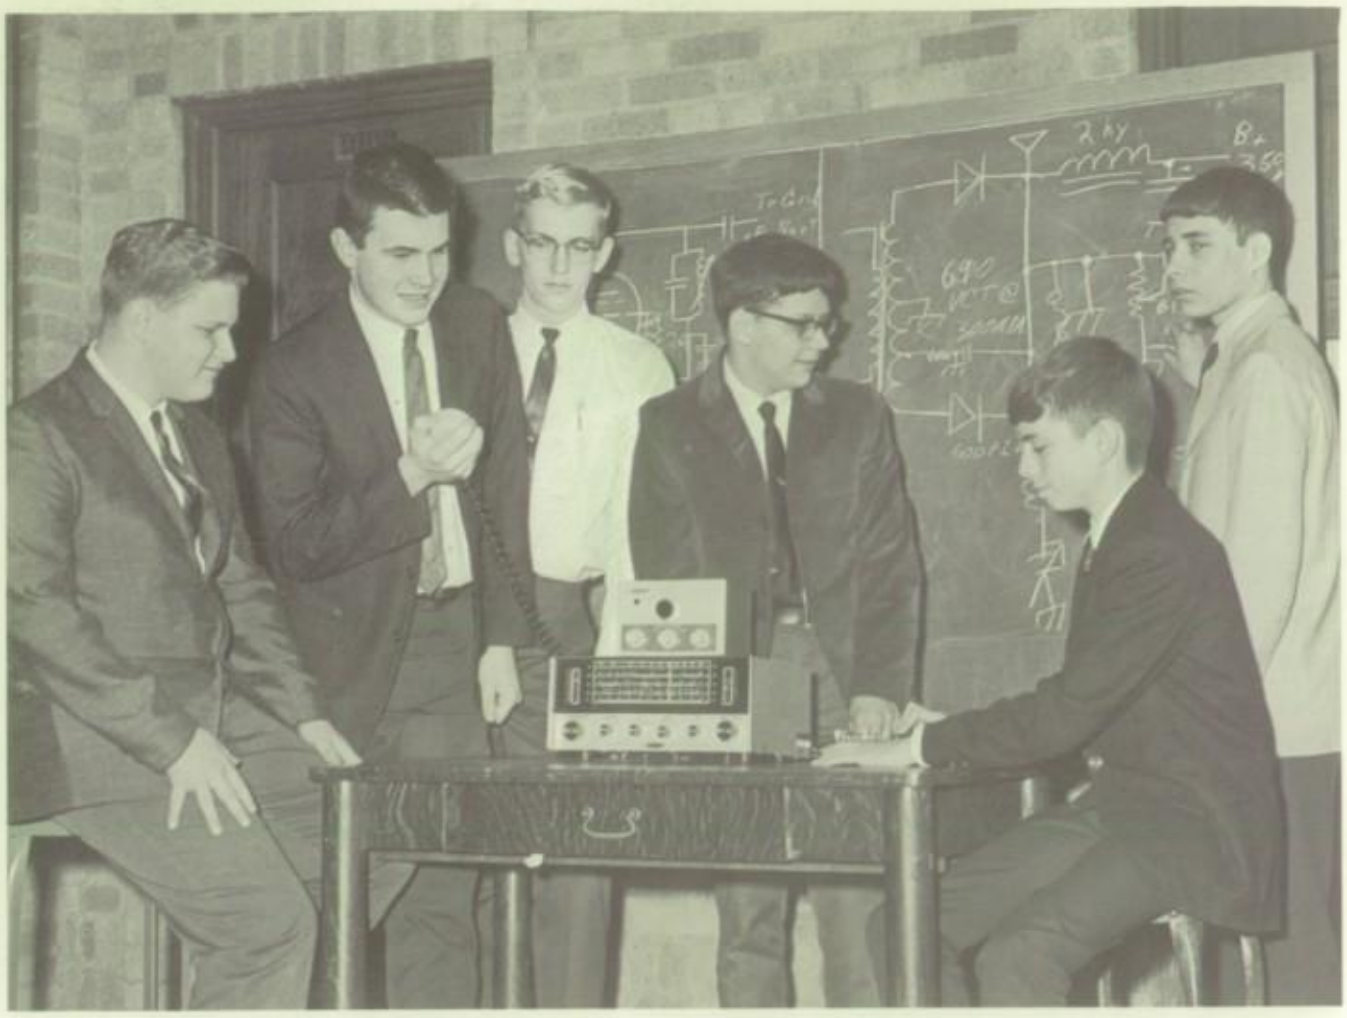


While Jim Day and Steve Nowak examine a segment of the DNA molecule, John Eggerstorfer and Ruth Konczal investigate a chlorophyll model, which is important in the chemistry of living things.

Chemistry Club officers Mary Porthouse, secretary; Martin Carr, president; James Zales, vice-president; and John Liedel, treasurer, prepare for the monthly meeting. This year's theme, "Relating Chemistry to the World Around Us" has prompted the members to arrange field trips and interviews.

Classes Complemented





Under the direction of the two licensed amateur radio operators, theory and code are taught to the members of the radio club. Club members are: J. Helminiak, B. Weiher, G. Obee, S. Nowak, D. Kaczorowski, and B. Boellner.

Through Clubs

Working together, the science clubs at Central provide an opportunity for interested students to delve into sciences.

The Medical Horizon Club, under the direction of Sr. M. Benet RSM, encourages its members to pursue careers for the medical world of tomorrow.

The Radio Club's moderator, Sr. M. Marguerite OSF, reminds her members that a "pot" is more than something to cook in; a current isn't something to eat; a "resistor" no longer is a member of the French underground, and a "ham" isn't an amateur actor.

This year the Future Scientists of America, under the leadership of Sr. M. Marcelline OSF, revised their constitution and divided the organization into two chapters.

The Chemistry Club, moderated by Sr. M. Peter Chanel OSF, visited the Toledo Crime Lab. Highlighting this venture was the interrogation of two members. The club attended a lecture on transition elements and sponsored several field trips.

Meeting once a month the Medical Horizon Club is supervised by Sr. M. Benet RSM. C. LeSage; R. Latorre, president; M. Ninneman, vice-president; and S. Tomaszewski return from one of their meetings.

In a darkroom rejuvenated by Camera Club members, future photographers, Ken Cherry, Elaine Nowalk, Cathy Marshall, and Bob Kirby, study light's effect on film development. Members' pictures have been displayed in Central's lobby.

While Debbie Hutton and Mike Molnar discuss Library Club events, such as the Valentine Open House Party for faculty, Book Week's film strip discussions, and the Library Assembly, Terri Krupp replaces some returned library books.

With Mrs. Pfeiffer's guidance, NHS officers, Kathy Schmakel, Diane Woytowich, Sue Ignasiak and Chris Binkert organize society activities. NHS sponsors the annual College Night and Career Week, Freshman Open House and tutoring services.

Talents Unfold Through Clubs

The Camera Club, with Sr. Irene Marie RSM, attended an art display on a field trip downtown.

To observe Catholic Book Week, a new approach was initiated by the Library staff, with Sr. M. Natalie's OSU assistance, by inviting teachers and students to review books and view film strips.

Theatrical Arts Forum, established by Mr. Robert Stucker, has initiated film study programs and raised funds for stage equipment.

Sr. M. Clarisena RSM and FTA members viewed educational films and heard guest speakers at monthly meetings.

Judged by Mr. Rozanski and Mrs. Konwinski, the Junior and Senior J.C.W.A. Debate resulted in a slim 1 point senior victory.

Continuously concerned with student counseling, Mrs. Pfeiffer has guided NHS functions along their theme, "Know Your Government."

C. Finn, J. Meyers, Mr. Stucker, J. Goutierre, and J. Kucz prepare the stage for one of the TAF projects. Movie and film studies have been offered by this new organization at Central.

Sue Boellner, treasurer; Bob Latorre, vice-president; and Anna Macke, secretary, collect research material, while Kathy Schmakel, Toledo Area Secretary; and Ted Chmielewski, president, discuss advantages of an area JCWA European trip.

Rita Rogers, Sue Varwig, Janice Resig, and Mary Ann Zitzman, FTA officers, discuss increasing importance of future teaching professions.

Activities Mirror Religious Principles

Leaving the sacristy are Ed Sorg, Bill Lauer, Don Buckenmeyer, and Dave Nirschl. As members of the St. John Berchman Sanctuary Society, they are given the privilege to serve Mass.

In addition to scholastic and athletic organizations at Central, there are several clubs which strive to transmit a spiritual significance to student life.

The St. John Berchman Sanctuary Society, under the guidance of Sr. M. Bernarda SND, provides an opportunity for Central men to serve Mass.

Through the combined efforts of the St. Hilda Guild and moderator, Sr. M. Ruth Ann SND, Mass vestments are mended, and the sacristy is kept in order.

All boys of the Art Department, under the supervision of Sr. M. Irene Marie RSM, participate in Catholic Art Apostolate. This year advanced students repainted the crib statues, while beginners made posters for the CAA board.

Directed by Father Ernest, Young Christian Student groups aim to supply example enabling others to share in establishment of Christian principles in the student world.

Sr. M. Jean Francis SND supervises activities of the Catholic Student Mission Crusade. Members sponsored the Christmas card and medicine drives. Combining proceeds from the various projects, the CSMC contributed $5,200 to the missions.

Repairing vestments are Elizabeth Czubinski, Carolyn Mohler, Kathy Zolciak, Mary Jane Demski and Elaine Osovich. St. Hilda Guild is responsible for preparing the altar for Mass.

Catholic Art Apostolate members L. Golba, D. Wherry, C. Frankowski, M. Stachowski, E. Hallenbeck, E. Kapp, J. Arquette and V. Zomkowski spend many hours of painting and refinishing weather-marred crib statues.

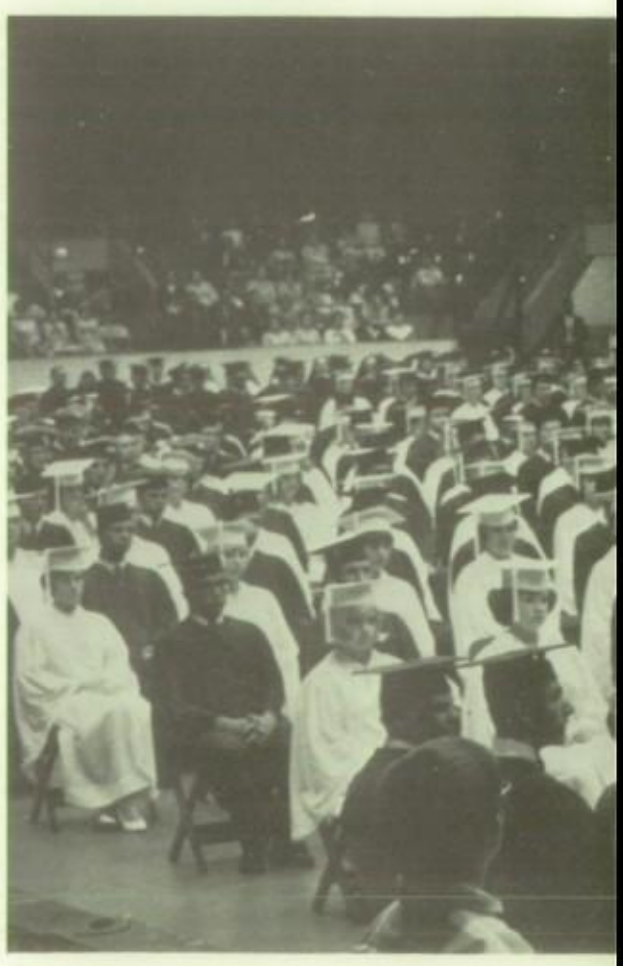
Kate Bauer and Le Wallace discuss living up to the standards of Christ's principles with Gerry Gospodarek, James Murawski, Paul Brunner, and Fr. Ernest OFMC, YCS group leader.

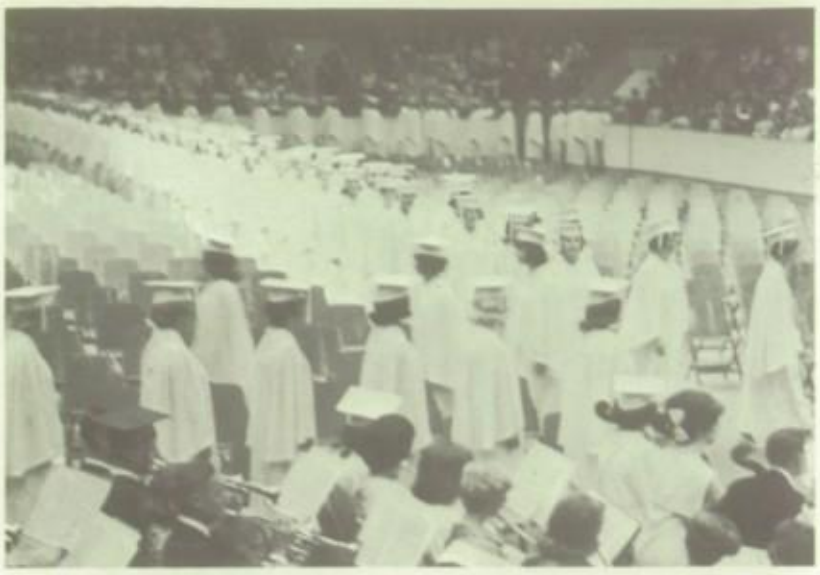
Active participants in Catholic Student Mission Crusade Charles Cousins, Marsha Longenecker, and Susan Boellner assist Michael Finkler in preparing the hall bulletin board for the coming medicine drive.

Since the honoring of the Blessed Virgin is so important, a day in May is set aside for a procession and crowning.

Besides the procession and the crowning are the recitation of the rosary, a sermon, and the singing of hymns dedicated to Mary.

Surrounded by flowers, the statue of the Blessed Virgin is crowned by two privileged students who are outstanding members of the CSMC and the St. John Berchman Society.





Graduation will bring with it many responsibilities. Hoping they have prepared themselves well for the future, the Class of '67 receive their diplomas.

'Your Spirit Leads Us Onward'

May Crowning

The May Crowning is an important event in the activities of the school year. It gives the faculty and the students a chance to honor Mary and thank her for being a fitting model for our lives. On the agenda are the procession, recitation of the rosary and litany, sermon, crowning, and hymns. The band and the Glee Club led the crowd in hymns dedicated to Mary.

Graduation

Graduation is an end and a beginning. It's the end of high-school life, but the beginning of adult life. The diploma signifies four years of higher education, but what is done with that knowledge is the responsibility of the graduate. On June 9, five hundred seniors will leave Central and take with them knowledge and memories. Hopefully, this combination has contributed to competent, well-developed individuals.

Members of the band and the audience listen as State Representative Marigene Valiquette, a 1942 Central alumna, delivers her address to the graduating class on the benefits of their past education.

SPORTS

Head coach Jim Cordiak eagerly awaits word from the spotter for a weakness in the opposition's defense.

Enduring long practice sessions is easy when the team is winning, but persistence in the face of defeat reveals real sportsmanship.

The Irish opened and closed the season on a happy note with victories over Start and Libbey. Cleveland St. Joseph saw Central at its best as they squeaked out a 12-0 victory against an excellent Irish defense.

Head coach Jim Cordiak and assistant coaches, Mr. Pete Benedict, Mr. Robert Sturek, and Mr. Dave Kregel, devoted themselves to the football program.

Five Irish were named to the All-City grid team and two were picked for the All-City academic squad. John Niezgoda captured first team honors; Bob Krall, second team; and Jack McKenzie, Bob Hanudel, and Mike Miller, honorable mention. Bob Hanudel and Tim Horne, carrying 4.0 and 3.9 scholastic averages respectively, were selected as All-City scholars. Bob also captained the squad.

The Irish bench often provides the incentive to drive the Irish attack on the field.

JV's Tie For City League Crown

Under the capable leadership of Mr. Thomas Powers, the 1966-67 JV's captured the city championship with a shattering 5-1-1 record.

An excellent defense proved the key to the title, as opposing teams could only tally 24 points against the reserves. If the city title is any indication of what kind of varsity team the future holds, Central should have little trouble keeping its championship tradition.

Under a new coach, Mr. Joe Rozanski, the Cross Country team posted a 5-8-1 running record on a rugged and rambling two mile course through Ottawa Park.

The Celt's Triangular and Quadrangular meets were paced by seniors Ray Corrigan, Jim King and Tom Smith along with juniors Pat Murnen who sprinted sixth place in the city meet.

In the District meet, the expressmen put forth a strong seventh place out doing an effort by St. Francis' squad to place ahead of them. With the returning juniors, next season's outlook is good.

"Frisco," "Bubba," "Dextrose," "Zorro." On hearing these exclamations, an inexperienced bystander might think a Walt Disney movie was in production. To any member of the 1966-1967 No. 1 basketball team these shouts signaled a special coded play.

Coach Jim Zak's cagers were the city's top defensive club, allowing the opposition only a 48.2 point average per game. The Celtic crew employed man-to-man and several variable zone defenses.

Going through league play undefeated, the City Champions compiled a perfect 13-0 record. Because the number of games will be decreased next year, Central retains the record of being the last team to win 13 City League games.

During the Knight's Invitational Tournament, December 29 and 30, Central suffered its first setback to Canton McKinley, 62-56.

Closing with a successful 19-2 record, Central ended its basketball season with a loss to the Libbey Cowboys in a hard-fought Super Sectional contest, on February 24.

Central placed Steve Shay, captain, and Pat Murnen on the All-City team with Tom Schick and Tim Harman receiving honorable mention. The Most Valuable Player and the Most Improved Player awards went to Steve Shay and Tom Schick.

Wrestlers Take Down Seven City Opponents

Co-captain Jim Dianda and next year's co-captain Vince Pietrazak receive trophies for District Championships. Presenting the trophies is Dick Wilson, Toledo University head coach.

Central's Mad Matmen, under the leadership of Coach Dave Kregal, compiled a 7-4 duel meet record in 1966-67, good for third place in the City League. Through 10 years of competition, grapplers have compiled a 111-25 record.

Highlighting the season was District Championship awarded to senior Jim Dianda 145 lbs., and junior Vince Pietrazak 112 lbs. Marty Mathias placed third. In All-City balloting, Vince Pietrazak, Alvarado from Woodward, and Zychowicz from St. Francis were all first team 112 lbs., while Jim Dianda captured the 145 lbs. title. Honorable mention went to seniors Tom Ketzer 127 lbs., Marty Mathias 165 lbs., and Ray Sheahan 154 lbs.

Coach Kregal is very optimistic about next year's team. He stated, "We will be a young and aggressive team with good potential. But the wrestlers must give self-sacrifice if they want to be winners. This year's seniors will be missed, but they are leaving a good attitude, valuable to young wrestlers."

Expected to carry the Central tradition next year are juniors Jim Arquette and Vince Pietrazak, who were elected co-captains, and Tom Moline. Sophomore prospects are Bill Montrie, Jim Addis, Dave Ember, Marquis Page, and Joe Blaze.

Joe Blaze switches to a win over a Rebel in the 103 lbs. class.

Spring Sports Sprint In Competition

TRACK

The enthusiasm of new track coach Tom Powers has ignited his squad. Starting early, coach Powers primed the cindermen with third-floor workouts and scheduled indoor meets with Woodward and DeVilbiss.

These spring meets revealed Jim Gagnet and Ray Corrigan as 440 speedsters, and Mike "Orange" Miller as a versatile trackman, racing the 100 yard dash and the low hurdles.

Mr. Powers also relied on Bart Bolbach's high hurdles, Paul Gardner's half mile, Mark Stubinski and Jim Ferstle's distance prowess and John Niezgoda's shot for the team's points in the dual meets.

GIRLS' TENNIS

Under the direction of Miss Maureen Gallagher and Miss Fran Krompack, the girls' tennis team captured a close second place in the Toledo Girls Tennis League.

Taking honors in tournament play-offs were Jackie Polakovic, first runner-up singles, and Kathy Schmakel and Sandi Klosowski, first runners-up doubles.

BOYS' TENNIS

The 1966 boys' squad, under the supervision of Mr. Tim Dever, finished their season with a 4-3 record.

Mr. Robert Gable, taking over the coaching responsibilities of the 1967 Irish netters, foresees a great season for his racketeers. Returning lettermen include Tim Frazier, Tom Tomaszewski, and Jim Schmakel.

Swinging Linksters

The golf team vied with other City League teams under the competent guidance of Mr. Donald Lewis. Mr. Lewis has coached golf for two years and is responsible for instructing the two teams of six members each. He also trains underclassmen for next year's squad.

Pawn Pushers Place Third In League

Open to all Central students, the Chess Club and two chess teams are under the direction of Father Brian.

Central's first chess team, led by team captain Ed Bocik '67, finished third in the Reshevsky Division with a 3-2-2 record. St. Francis led the league, but Central's team pulled a stunning upset by tieing the Knights 3-3.

In the Marshall Division, Central's second chess team also finished third with a 4-2-1 record. The second team chessmen led their league for nearly half the season, but a tie with Macomber and a loss to St. Francis put the title out of reach.

Senior Ed Bocik maintained the highest individual rating for Central. He was closely followed by Ray Clark.

Irish pawn pushers L. Cichy, E. Bocik, J. Ferstle, T. Tomaszewski, J. Bibish, Moderator Fr. Brian, and R. Clark, members of Central's number one chess team, placed third in the Reshevsky Division.

Placing third in their division, members of Central's number two chess team, L. Griesmer, D. Grabarczyk, J. Wernert, J. Daly, J. Jagodzynski, and N. Logsdon, ponder over intriguing chess problems.

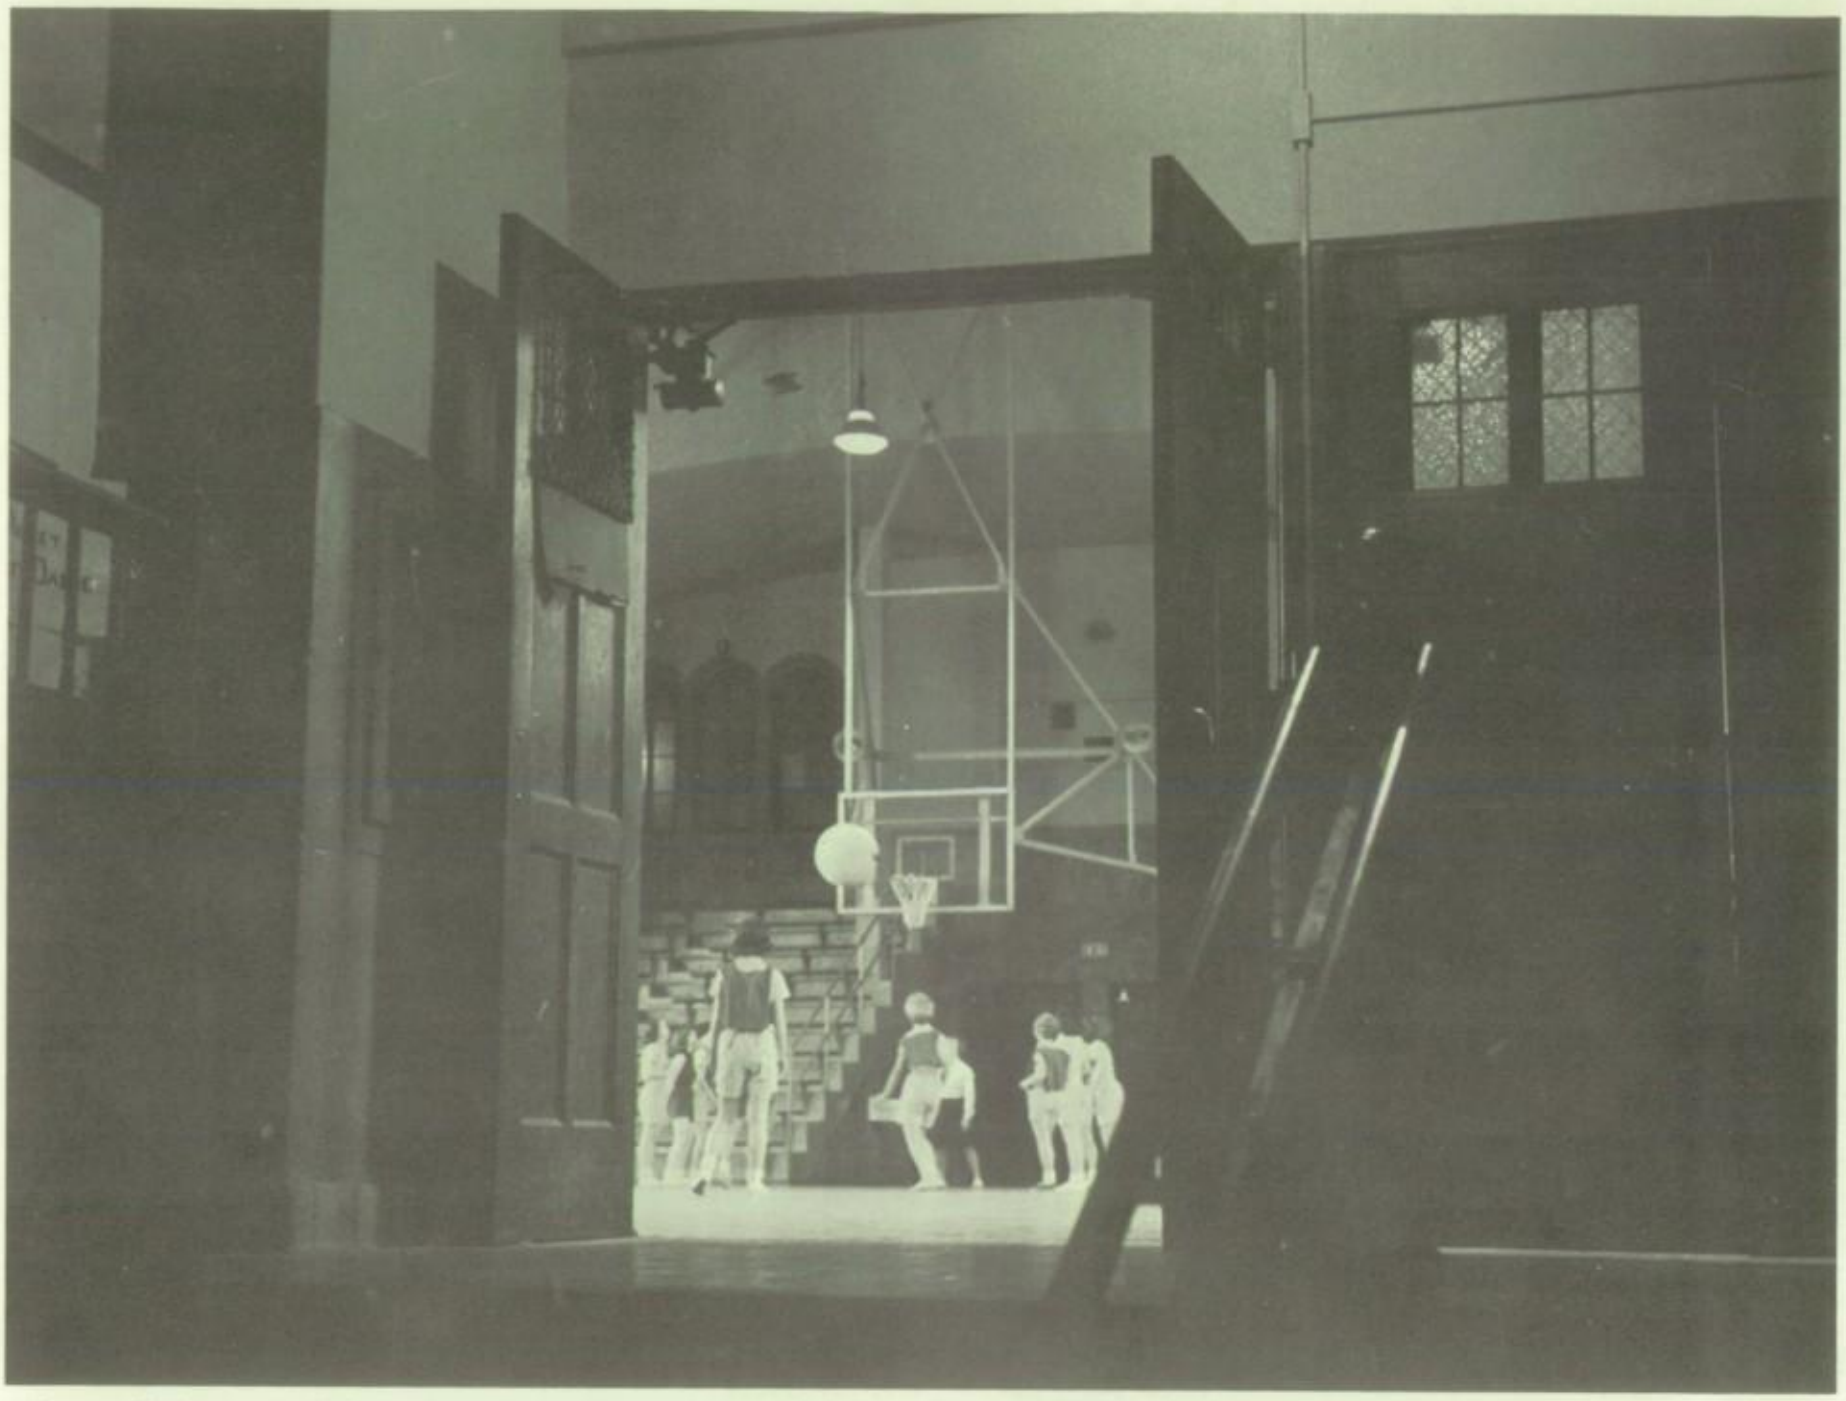
Baseball, Bowling Sport Irish Spirit

The American bowling team: J. Matuszak, T. Pacavicz, L. Glesmer, D. Jankowski, and J. Rafey.

The Fighting Irish bowling team showed great improvement from last year in capturing the league title and second place in the play-offs. The Americans took first place while the Nationals copped second in the round-robin.

The Americans, comprised of Jim Matuszak, Larry Glesmer, Tony Pacewicz, Dennis Jankowski, David Sobczak, and Mike Meeks, were aided considerably by a nineteen-game winning streak in romping to the championship. The quintet finished with a 46-8 record.

Lead by co-captains Rick Terpinski and Dave Borkowski, the Nationals compiled a 34-1/2-19-1/2 record, finishing in third place. During the play-offs, the Nats upset St. Francis and crushed Woodward only to fall to Start in the finals. Other members of the team were Leonard Piodja, Darryl Styszko, Dale Kubacki, Tom Wood, and Jerry Knierm.



What really happens behind these doors during a girls' gym class? Continually and actively competing in various sports, such as the pictured cage ball game, is a routine occupation of the participants. This happy, spirit-filled atmosphere has provided each girl with a well-rounded physical education.

With the fresh atmosphere of spring stimulating campus activities, gym classes enjoy a delightful change. Aiming their bows at the target, girls attempt to hit the center.

Using knowledge of holds, blows and counters, Linda Gall and Rae Rahe demonstrate proper application of body weight and footwork in combat of judo.

Energetic GALS Run, Shoot, Jump

Exhibiting a few of girls' invigorating sports: archery, bowling, basketball, and tennis, are GAL officers Mary Beth Kreuz, Colleen Corrigan, Carol Kaminski and Terry Augello.

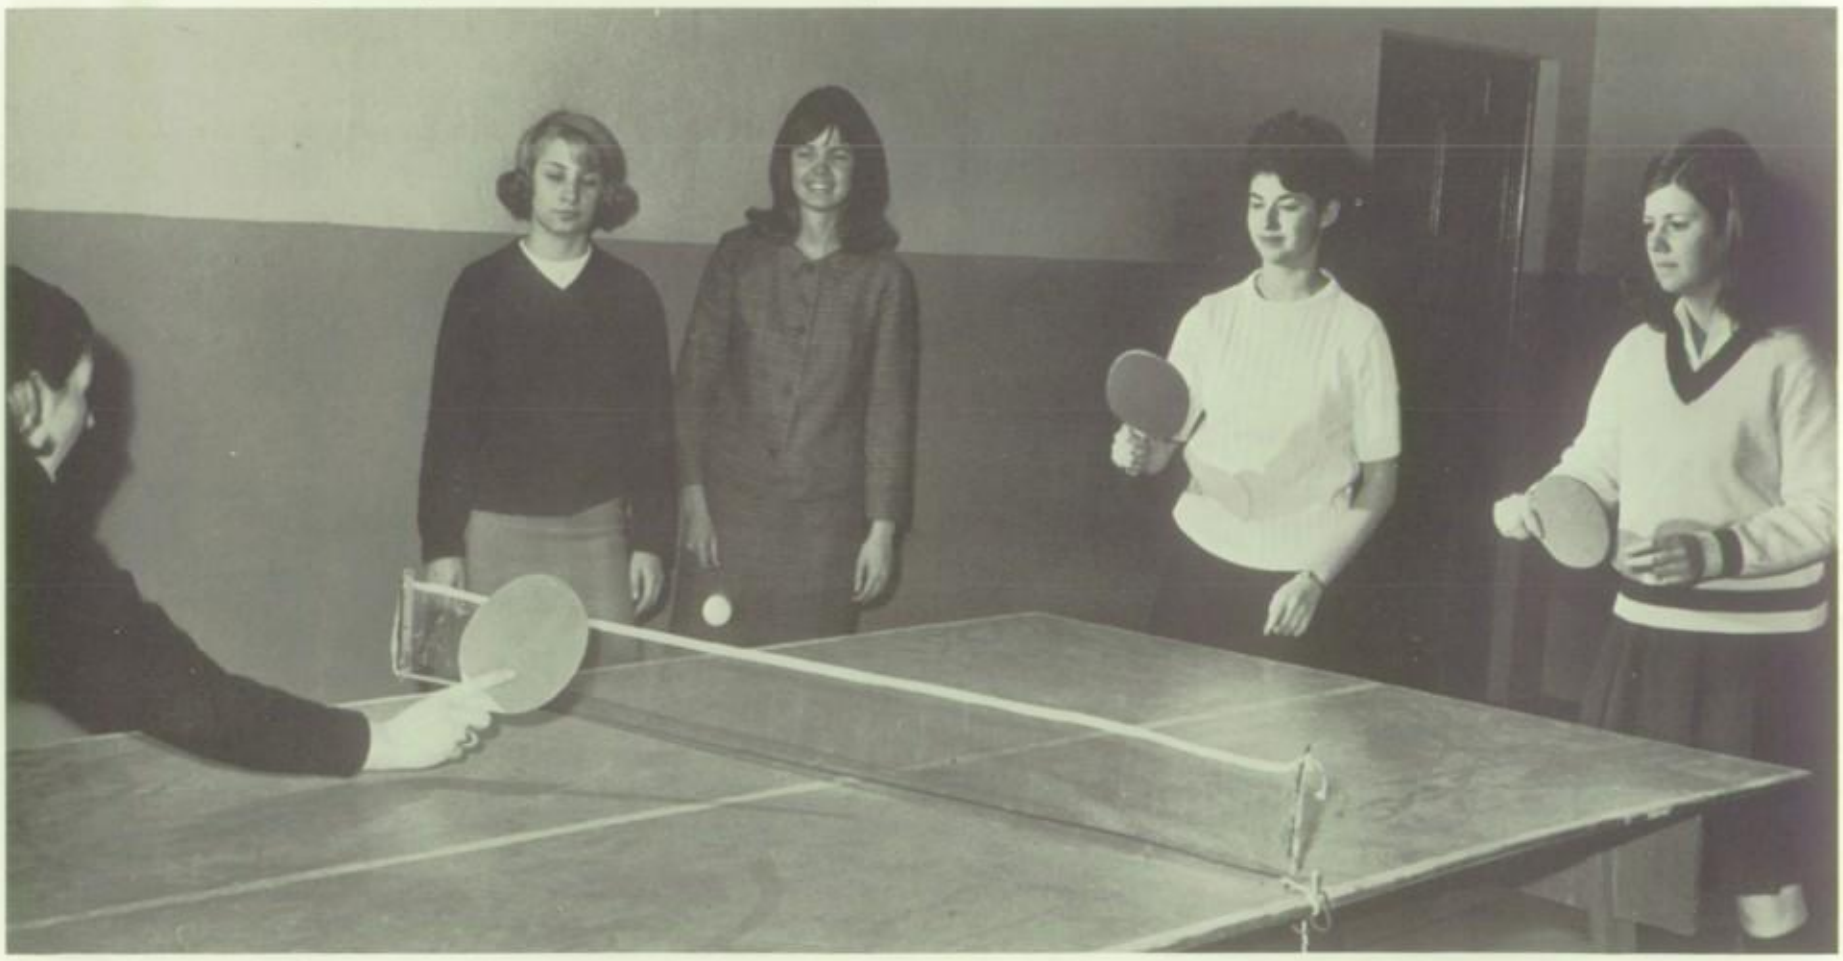
What do the girls' physical education classes and GAL activities involve? How have they grown to their present dimensions?

In addition to basketball, softball, soccer, volleyball, archery, tumbling and table tennis, badminton and square dancing have entered a second successful year. Gymnastics, including side-horse, parallel bar and balance beam, actively began this year.

The Girls' Athletic League has also displayed talents in various athletic fields. Horsebackriders have entered the league's busy schedule. Rated first among area Catholic schools is the underclass swim team. Bowling has continued to be a popular GAL activity, with Terry Krupp ranking high in the winner's bracket. Winning singles table tennis tournament was Sue Noe.

Due to unselfish effort, push and spirit of Miss Maureen Gallagher and Miss Frances Krompak, the girls' athletic program has completed a successful year.

Jackie Polakovic and Kathy Schmakel watch Kathy Wieck and Mary A. Sherry attempt to return Sue Noe's curving serve during the ping pong tournament.



The 1966-67 Dancing Irish are: Captain Judy Eckhart, Roseann Massa, Joanne Lindsay, Co-captain Valorie Chwialkowski, Cheryl Buck, Lynne Marshall.

Shamrock Cuties Brighten Irish Shows

Leading the school are varsity cheerleaders: Kneeling: Marli Vogl, Terri Augello, Joan Fall, Captain Carol Kaminski, and Bonnie Borer. Standing: Co-captain Cathy Biggs, Jane Kramer, and Jackie Meeks.

Sue Krempa, Judy Hedegus, Charlene Lawniczak, Debbie Perkins, and Bonnie Fumo.

Tipping her hat in salute to the Irish, senior Lynne Marshall dances to Irish Drill Show.

Shouts and cheers re-echo throughout the halls as anxious juniors, sophomores and freshmen girls await spring tryouts for cheerleading. Judged on form agility, jumps, and vivacity, eight sophomore and junior girls are selected as varsity cheerleaders, while six freshmen girls are chosen to represent Central as lightweights for the following year. New cheerleaders must practice all during the summer to prepare for the upcoming football and basketball seasons.

Adding to the half-time entertainment at all the Irish football games and several of the basketball games are Central's own Dancing Irish. Freshmen, sophomores, and junior girls are selected at the end of each school year for their poise, appearance, marching and overall dancing talent. The half-time dancers who design and make all their own costumes and choreograph their routines are also featured at all band engagements.

Lightweight cheerleaders: Kneeling: Marjorie Richacek, Renee Restivo, and Darcy McGrath. Standing: Judy Kaminski, Ann McCarty, and Ruth Konczal.

Reddy Says: We Want People to "Get Ahead"

Today's classrooms furnish knowledge that will help in tomorrow's world. That's why Toledo Edison urges employees to improve their skills, abilities and mental growth through company-sponsored education and training programs such as:

EDUCATION ASSISTANCE PLANS
ADVANCED MANAGEMENT COURSES
FOREMANSHIP CLASSES
SPECIAL ON THE JOB TRAINING AND STUDY

But, we also encourage other people to continue their education so they can qualify for increasingly important jobs such as those at Toledo Edison.

LIBBEY·OWENS·FORD

TOLEDO 2, OHIO

What a wonderful Open World

Have you noticed schools like this on your travels? Probably, because new buildings are springing up everywhere. They are beautiful and functional structures with large glass areas to create an "open-world" atmosphere to eliminate the feeling of being boxed in.

Wherever you live, work, shop or travel, you'll find L·O·F Glass making it more enjoyable. In homes, motels, schools and stores. In offices and factories. In hospitals and churches. In cars, buses, trains and planes.

There's an L·O·F Glass that insulates windows. It's called Thermopane® insulating glass. Another subdues sun heat and glare. L·O·F Glass that makes automobiles safer. L·O·F Glass to do a thousand things.

And when anyone needs glass, there's an authority on it nearby—your local independent L·O·F Glass Distributor or Dealer. His name is in the telephone book Yellow Pages under "Glass". Call him.

Laboratories, shops and studyrooms are separated from twin classroom buildings by a broad, central court, Ithaca Senior High School, Ithaca, N.Y. Architects: Perkins & Will, White Plains, N.Y.

Congratulations to the Class of 1967 from all the people at Fiberglas!

CONGRATULATIONS

to the new graduates

As parents, neighbors, and friends we naturally have a special interest in the quality of our schools.

No community is better than its schools, and no school is better than the determination and willingness of a community to support standards high enough and broad enough to meet tomorrow's levels of need, both vocationally and for citizenship.

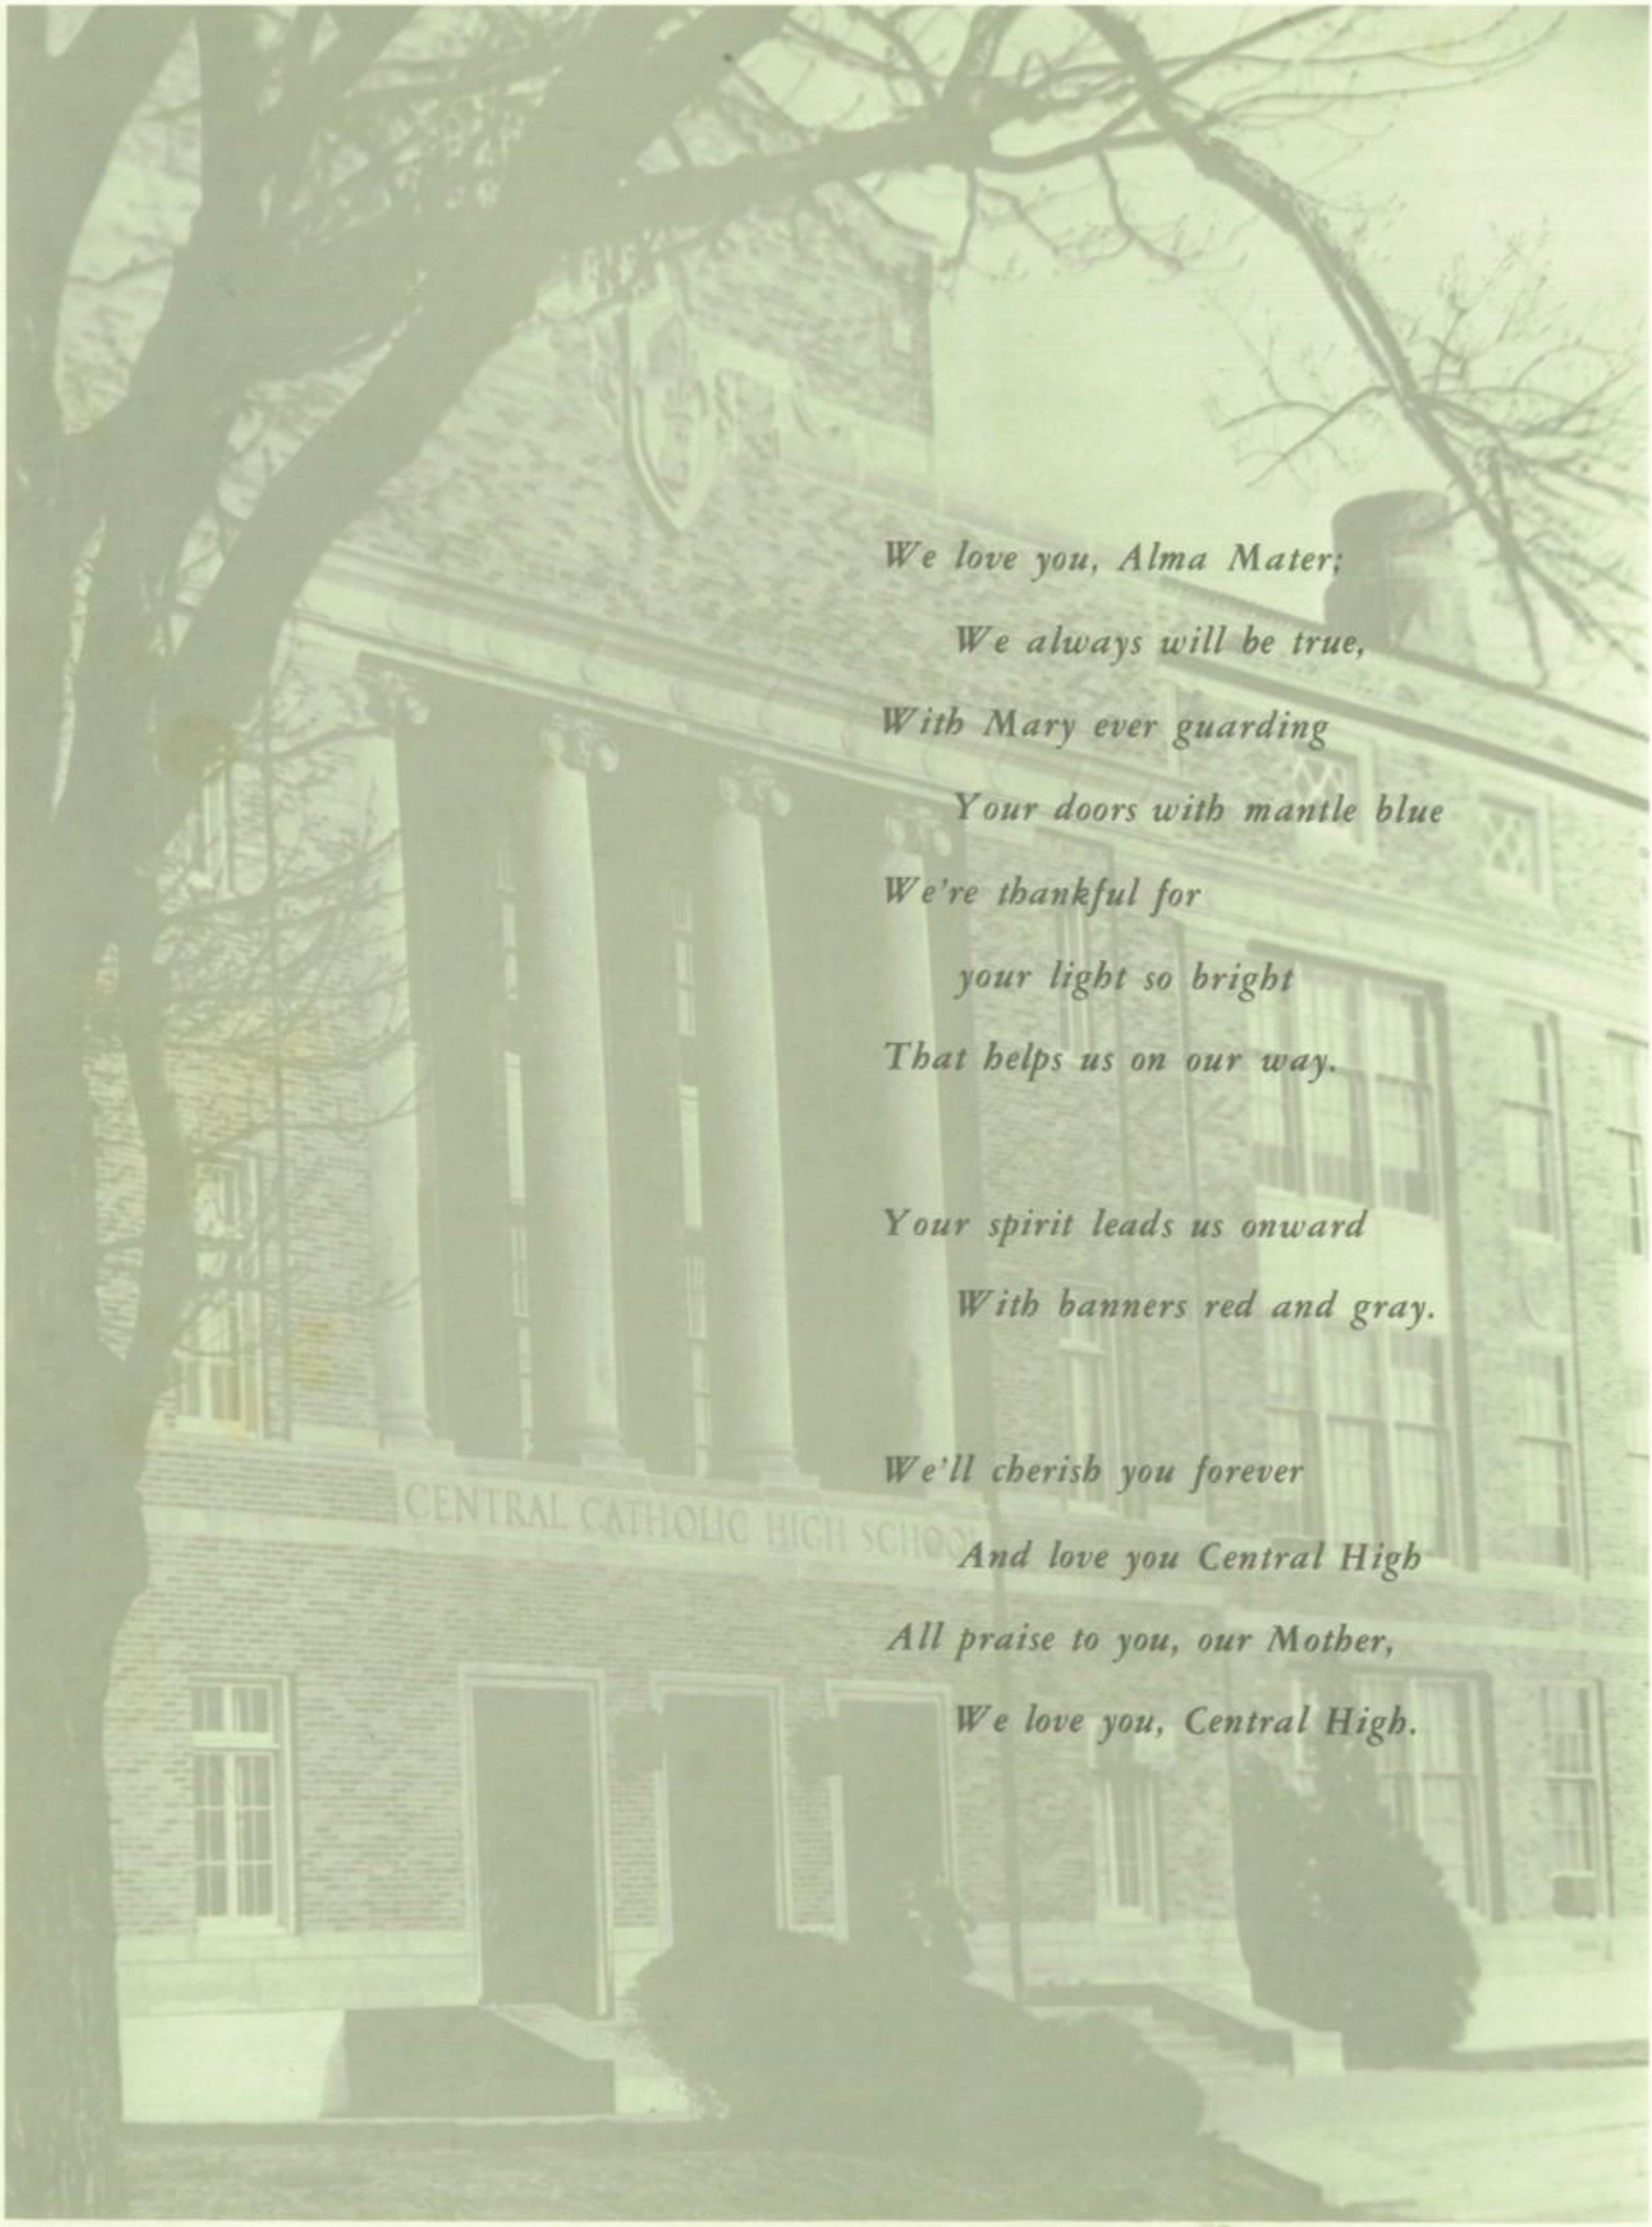
OWENS-ILLINOIS
Toledo, Ohio



We love you, Alma Mater;
We always will be true,
With Mary ever guarding
Your doors with mantle blue
We're thankful for your light so bright
That helps us on our way.

Your spirit leads us onward
With banners red and gray.

We'll cherish you forever
And love you Central High
All praise to you, our Mother,
We love you, Central High.
